It all starts with your homepage

The screenshot shows the John Hancock Retirement Plan Services homepage. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links for 'Manage', 'Review', 'Learn', and 'Quicklinks'. Below the menu is a 'My Retirement' header. The main content area is titled 'My Future' and features a goal tracking section with a photo of a beach chair and text indicating a goal of $62,000/year and current progress of $54,000/year. Below this is a 'My Today' section displaying an account balance of $74,568.55, a guaranteed income feature benefit base of $71,493.33, and a loan balance of $12,000.00. The 'My Today' section also includes sub-sections for 'My Contribution Amount' (5.00%), 'My Rate of Return' (5.45%), 'My Investments' (95% OIA US Targeted Value Fund, 5% U.S. Equity Fund, 25% FIMCO Total Return), and 'My Statements'. At the bottom, there are three educational resource boxes: 'My Learning Center', 'Need a Plan for Retirement?', and 'Have Other Retirement Accounts?'.
